

Run

Andy Smith

As I go
Through the corridor of water
A new horizon now is what I see
As I go
These walls are rising higher
The miracle now surrounding me

Captivity it lies behind me
But freedom is the road I'm travelling on

So I'll run - run to my Saviour, run
With all that's within me, run
There's no more chains that bind me now

So I'll run - run to my Saviour, run
With all that's within me, run
I'm living in your freedom now

So I'll go
Nothing stands against me
There's nothing now that's standing in my way
Yeah, I'll go with the song of over comers
I'm singing at the dawn of a new day

I'm leaving all the chains behind
